CHORAL SYMPHONY CONCERT.

The last concert of the Choral Symphony Society, given on the 19th ult., was an unqualified success. The principal was Mrs. Corinne Moore-Lawson, soprano. Miss Marie Schellie, alto. Charles Kator, tenor, and Oswald Miles, baritone, all of whom did most praiseworthy work. The concert was well received.

The following prospectus for the season 1893-94 has been issued:
The season last closed has been by far the most successful in the history of the Society. At three concerts the Hall was so packed that many were unable to attend, and no seats could be had, while at a number standing room tickets were sold.

We attribute this very great increase of interest and attendance mainly to the generally pleasing program, and to the attractive soloists we have brought here, and the excellent work of both chorists and orchestra.

We intend to make the season of 1893-94, if possible, more pleasing, and will present at each concert at least one foreign artist of undoubted ability.

Attendance this season over 30,000. We will give eight concerts (four Choral and four Symphony) at the following very low prices for season seats:

First, second and third rows, dress circle, per seat, $5.00; cost per seat per concert, 63 cents. Fourth, fifth and sixth rows, dress circle, per seat, $3.00; cost per seat per concert, 43 cents. Entire package, per seat, $3.00; cost per seat per concert, 43 cents. Balance of dress circle, $4.00; cost per seat per concert, 43 cents. First, second and third rows, balcony, $2.50; cost per seat per concert, 31 cents. Balance of balcony, $4.00; cost per seat per concert, 31 cents.

We anticipate a large increase in our subscription list for the coming season, and we contemplate establishing the following season tickets, which we are disappointed in the number of subscribers obtained:

Subscribers for the season of 1903-94 may retain the same seats for subsequent seasons by notifying the Secretary each time that they desire them.

We will discontinue night sales of seats, thereby saving considerable expense, hence there is a possibility that you can not attend any of the concerts unless you are a subscriber.

We will not give any pupils and teachers' tickets, complimentary tickets.

We have placed our prices on a basis that just half those charged by the Apollo Club of Chicago, that we think they are within the reach of all who appreciate the concert.

By filling up inclosed postal card, and stating just what you will greatly facilitate our efforts in securing the subscription list for the next season's concert.

Subscriptions payable in November, when seats are selected, very respectfully,

D. C. CORKINSON,
Secretary and Treasurer.

MUSICAL GRADUATES.

The Annual Concerts of the Beethoven Conservatory of Music Pupils.

The annual concerts of the Beethoven Conservatory of Music took place on Monday evening, last, occupying the Exposition Building. The spacious hall was crowded to excess with a brilliant music-loving audience on each occasion, and these audiences listened to three of the last eight concerts ever heard in St. Louis. The rendition of the three programmes, comprising the most artistic and difficult compositions, gave evidence that the Beethoven Conservatory is one of the best music schools in the country. Among those who distinguished themselves particularly and received the highest approval of the audience, who on some occasions evinced their pleasure by repeated recalls, were: Misses M. Miller, D. Vasek, J. Fitzpatrick, M. Sotter, B. Maguire, G. May, J. Malher, L. Wetmore, M. Seemannshar, R. Frey, H. Thorell, R. Zick, M. Garabede, C. Yagor, M. Maehlsner, E. Benzlhausen, H. Rowe, H. Collins, A. Evensole, N. Miller, R. Donnell, M. M. Allen, Parcell, Anstetter, E. Elman, A. Barlow, A. Miller, E. Lynde, L. McCall, M. Frecher, B. Schaff, G. Ward, L. Ziel, D. Downer, E. Kirland, A. Brandt, A. A. Cone, Mrs. D. Mayberg, and Masters, M. Maguin, Chas. A. Cole, P. Tietjens, C. Tholl.

Diplomas were given to the following graduates: Misses Anna Brant, Kate Coleman, Olla Ward, Ida Meier, George May, Ella Kirkland, Billie Dowzer, Effie Olson, Mrs. S. B. May, Julia Vasek, Anna Mueller, Luella Holland, Anna Barlow, Miss McNulty, Evelyn Egan, Stella Maehlsner, Alice Anstetter, Nanette Miller, M. Sotter, George May, Roger Tholl, Collins, and Master Carl Tholl; and gold medals to the following post graduates: Misses Anna Unger, F. Brunschwiler, Kate Ayer, Jessie King, Maria Garabede, Meta Bresler, Emma Lynde, Annie Schellie, Berna Wels, L. L. Wetmore, Lydia Gether, Minnie Sotter, Emma Donnell, A. A. Cone, M. Frecher, Helen Ross, S. A. Parcell, Rose Duparties, Marie Brunschwiler and Master Bertram Maehlsner. Some of the scholars gave renditions which were remarkable for amateur performers.

NEW YORK SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.

The two concerts given at grand Music Hall on the 15th ult., by the famous New York Symphony Orchestra, under Maestros, conducted were two of the greatest who are afforded at St. Louis this season. The concerts were under the able direction of Morris Kern, and to him and the capable business manager, John J. Nolan, are due in large measure the success of the concerts here. We would like to hear more of this excellent organization, and trust the dates for the next visit will not be too far away. The Hollman Brothers deserve no small credit for the manner in which they conducted the sale of tickets, etc.

BOLLMAN'S POPULAR CONCERT.

The third popular Sunday Concert given by Hollman Brothers was a success in every sense, and presented a well varied and interesting program. Among the soloists was Mr. J. J. Epstein, the pianist who has established himself as a prime favorite. He played wonderfully well, and his orchestra, he gave a magnificent rendition to the 3rd concert by the Hollman Brothers.

He was accompanied by a very talented concert artist, and a great treat to the audience. Mr. A. Epstein's accompaniment work was thoroughly artistic. The Hollman Brothers have proven a success, and their reputation next season will be hailed with delight by lovers of music.

ROBYN'S "JACINTA."

One of the principal events of the season will be the production of Robyn's "Jacinta," or "The Maid of Mantua." The libretto is by Wm. H. Lapham, and the music is by Robyn. The story is well known, and there is no doubt but the opera will win its way to a high place among the "successes" of the season. The opera is to be presented in the representation of the opera delays a little.

In Macagnoli's "Bardani" there is an intermezzo in which in forty-nine, when the tempo is changed to less than seven times. The "Venezian critics do not think that Macagnoli holds his own in the "Bardani."

It is said that, as director of the Grand Opera and the Philharmonic Society of Vienna, Herr Richter has an income of only about $1,500, and there was great surprise that he should decline the much more liberal offers from Boston. On the other hand, he would in time be entitled to a pension if he fulfilled his engagements in Austria. There seems, however, to be a certain mystery about this Boston business, and perhaps Herr Richter may yet be induced to reconsider his latest decision. So far no one has been appointed to the position for which he was wanted, although the names of Felix Mottl, of Carlsruhe, has been mentioned. This Mottl is chiefly noted as a Wagnerian conductor, and is prominent in the Bayreuth performances. Richter, however, stands on a higher plane as a musician. He is now about fifty years of age, of a stately and dignified bearing, wearing a long, flowing hair.

FAVORITE FASHION JOURNALS

Are Published Monthly in Paris in French and in English by

A. McDOWELL & CO.

THESE JOURNALS Have long been the Leaders of Fashion in Paris, and are now acknowledged to be the standard in this country.

THEY HAVE FOUR POINTS OF SUPERIORITY.
First—They produce original styles. Usually one month in advance of other journals.

Second—The styles are practical and reliable,
such as the better class in Paris really wear.

Third—The practical lessons on how to cut and make garments are invaluable. These lessons simplifying dressmaking are valued at $12.00 per year.

Fourth—The colored plates are noted for giving the correct colors, of the materials used, as well as their general excellence.

These Journals are designed by different artists, consequently each one is peculiar to itself, giving
its own styles.

AT THE OLD PLACE

Discordant are thy tones, old friend,
And little's left of thee to please;
But as I, sadly dreaming, bend
Above thy faded yellow keys,
I love thee so, I love thee so
For the fingers frail you used to know

Old friend, I softly hum to thee
An old, sweet, memory haunting strain
Does this long silent melody
Bring back to ~~thee~~ her voice again?
I love thee so, I love thee so
For the angel voice you used to know
In the happy days of long ago.

The shadows creep from key to key
And silence fills the fading light;
So silence soon must come to me.
Ah, well, good night, old friend, good night!
I love thee so, I love thee so
For the perfect love we used to know
In the memory days of long ago.—J.K.O.
